Definition of a Special Stacker: A Special Stacker is defined as a stacker who has a diagnosed physical and/or mental disability that would impede with the normal functioning necessary to perform a variety of sequential physical skills, specifically sport stacking. A Special Stacker must be identified by a school or licensed psychologist or medical professional as having one of the following diagnoses: Intellectual Disability; Traumatic Brain Injury; Orthopedic, Health and/or Visual Impairment; Specific Learning Disability; Multiple Disabilities. Special Stackers competing in SS18 and younger divisions are students who require specially designed instruction and are served in a self contained classroom for 80-100% of their school day. Special Stackers competing in the SS19+ Division are adults who require assistance and/or support to access the workplace and employment.

Age Division Doubles

Most Stackers partner with a member of their Relay Team to form an Age Division Doubles Team. Doubles teams can be coed. If you need help finding a partner please type "need partner" below.

Child/Parent Doubles

In addition to competing on an Age Division Doubles team, a Stacker may also pair up with a "parent" in the Child/Parent Doubles Division. The intent of this special event is to encourage family stacking. A child may compete with one of their parents, step parents, legal guardians, grandparents or step grandparents, and that "parent" may compete with each "child" in their immediate family.
